Bonjour Tout Le Monde!

Dear All. It would be a bit rubbish to go to France and not eat any of their yummy food. This week I thought that it might be useful to know how to order some food if you were eating in a café or a restaurant. And also giving you the vocabulary to help you food shop in a market.

Any work you want to share, please email me at french@sjsc.southwark.sch.uk

Activity 2

Café Food

Look at the following vocabulary...

(The first item means "fizzy drink")

Activity 3 – I would like

In order to say "I would like" you need to use "Je voudrais" which you pronounce "Ju foodray".

Listen to these school kids put Taylor Swift's song to use in a French café...

Click on French Su2 wk5 Activity 3

These are the words to the song where you will see Je Voudrais repeated over and over. "Vous desirez?" means "What would you like?". You will recognise a lot of the French food words but;

Poulet frites = chicken and chips

The = tea

Croque Monsieur = cheese on toast but better!

Chocolat chaud = hot chocolate

Je ne sais pas = I don't know

Click on Café Song.mp3

You could also use Je voudrais..... If you wanted to buy something at a French market. For example if you were buying fruit or vegetables you might say;

Je voudrais une banane

Je voudrais trois pommes

Je voudrais cinq poires
