This Week's News...

This week saw the first day of spring and one of the coldest days of the year. Thank you to all children, parents and staff who made it in throughout the week during some quite difficult conditions – well done everyone! I was very impressed by everyone's resilience and commitment to making sure the weather did not stop great learning from happening.

Thursday was World Book Day and what an impressive array of costumes and real sense of excitement for reading across the school. I hope you have seen some of the wonderful pictures and videos on our website.

Stay safe and wrap up warm this weekend.

Warmest wishes,

Mr Bell, Miss Crank and Mrs Harding.

Last day of term

International Women's Day is on Thursday 8th March. As part of our commitment to equality and diversity, we plan to celebrate the day on Tuesday 6th March. We are asking children to create a piece of work about a woman in their life who has influenced them. This could be a Mum, Grandma, teacher, Auntie, family friend, doctor or any other significant women in their lives. They could draw, write, photograph, type, collage. They must tell us a little bit about their influential woman and why/how they have influenced them. We would love to hear their stories.

New System for Booking After School Clubs

For clubs starting next term Parents will be able to use the Parents' Evening booking system to book after school club places. More information will be sent home soon. If you had any difficulties with the online Parents' Evening booking system please could you email office@sjsc.southwark.sch.uk once you receive the details and we can check we have the correct name and title recorded for you.

Snow or Bad Weather Plan

This week we have had the opportunity to revise and practise our adverse weather plan. If there is significant snow, we will:

- ensure the school site is safe for our school community: our pupils and our staff;
- aim to text message all parents by 7.30am on the day of significant snow indicating whether the school is open; and
- we will aim to update the website by 7.30am, twitter updates <http://twitter.com/SJSCPrimary>

World Book Day

It is very important that children attend school every day.

This week, well done to Kahlo, Walker and Klee.
