Dear Parents and Carers,

Our mosaic has started and almost all the children have now had a chance to contribute to the artwork. It is going to look amazing!

This week I have spent most of my time, with Mrs Harding and Miss Crank meeting with each of the teachers discussing the progress and learning of each child. It has been good to discover just how well our staff individually know each of the children.

Next week our choir are performing at Young Voices at the O2, they have been practising for months and it promises to be an incredible event, thank you to Mrs Burdett for organising this.

As I mentioned last week, our value this term is perseverance. You will have received a leaflet about this to help you explore this theme at home and a home-school challenge. I look forward to seeing the mosaics that you create.

Best wishes,

Joseph Bell
