Friday 7th July 2017

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been an extremely full week at SJSC. This week each class had an online safety workshop, which taught them how to keep themselves safe online – thank you to all of the parents who attended the workshop. Our Year 6 attended their leavers' service at Southwark Cathedral, Year 5 performed Samba at the Watercity Music Festival at the Tower of London. Star and Rainbow Class visited Godstone Farm and Year 4 continued their learning on World War 2 at the Imperial War Museum.

Yesterday we sent home a survey - we would really like to hear your views on how we are doing as a school. Please can you return the form by next Friday 14th July. If you prefer, you can fill in the form online, however please only complete one questionnaire.

We hope you have an enjoyable weekend.

Joseph Bell, Anna Harding and Alli Crank

Have you heard our wonderful violinists?

Did you know we have over 180 children who learn a musical instrument at our school? Last week our violinists played in their Cripplegate Concert and this week they performed solos to parents.

Grenfell Tower Collection

Thank you to everyone who donated to the Grenfell Tower Collection. We raised £339.81. Well done everyone!
