This Week's News...

This week on Monday, children from Tilden Class visited James Wolfe School to meet Danny Skit – a blogger, for a workshop on anti-bullying.

On Tuesday four children from Years 1 and 2 visited Dulwich Village Infants School to take part in a Southwark Maths event. It was great to meet other children and share different activities and skills.

On Friday Kahlo Class competed in a multi-skills event with schools from across Southwark and back at school everyone dressed in red to raise money for Comic Relief.

It has been a busy week for all, making links with other schools and taking part in national events.

Have a good weekend.

Diana Award Anti-bullying Workshop

Tilden class visited James Wolfe Primary and met the famous Deaf Vlogger, Danny Skit. They also learnt about bullying as well as having to create a performance about how to stop bullying.

SingUp Day Singing

The children have spent the past few weeks rehearsing the official SingUp Day song. Here they are performing, hoping to make it into the official Digi Choir. We'll keep you informed!

Have you seen our Lent Reflection Space?

Over the next few weeks, each child will have the opportunity to visit our calm reflection space that has been set up by Miss Edwards and Kerry. It is a reflective space where children can think about important things to them including friendships and moments of which they are proud.

#REDNOSEDAY

The school was a sea of red today to celebrate Red Nose Day. Thank you to everyone who contributed by buying merchandise, entering competitions and dressing up. Today was a wonderful opportunity to see our values of KINDNESS and ASPIRATION in action.
